JERSEY. – Mount Orgueil Castle.
Orlette

LL5926

TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

JERSEY.—Mount Orgueil Castle. The Castle of Mount Orgueil stands on a projecting headland of rock that separates Grouville Bay from St. Anne's Bay. The highest part of the Castle is 310 feet above the sea, and is ascended from the pier by 244 steps, mixed up with pieces of steep road. It was commenced in the 10th century by the Dukes of Normandy, and was continued by the kings of England. Queen Victoria visited the Castle on September 3, 1846.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

Printed in England.

"JERSEY."

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" [Regd.] Postcard 7319.

From "THE CHANNEL ISLANDS," illustrated by Henry B. Wimbush / A. & C. Black].

JERSEY. Mount Orgueil Castle.
Orlette

LL5926

"JERSEY."
Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" [Regd.] Postcard 7319.
From "THE CHANNEL ISLANDS." Illustrated by Henry B. Wimbush (A. & C. Black).

TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

JERSEY.—Mount Orgueil Castle. The Castle of Mount Orgueil stands on a projecting headland of rock that separates Grouville Bay from St. Anne's Bay. The highest part of the Castle is 310 feet above the sea, and is ascended from the pier by 244 steps, mixed up with pieces of steep road. It was commenced in the 12th century by the Dukes of Normandy, and was continued by the kings of England. Queen Victoria visited the Castle on September 3, 1846.

(For Address Only.)

BATH
SP 15
05
1.45AM
10

Miss H Wilbourn
c/o Mrs Thomas
The Lawn Union
Lower Bois Walk
[illegible]

Printed in England.